Subject: Completion of tertiary education

The creation of the Europe 2020 target of at least 40 % of 30- to 34-year-olds completing third level education is an encouraging step within the EU.

1. How does the Commission plan to ensure that all Member States achieve this target, and that this target is not only met at EU level?
2. What efforts is the Commission making to ensure that there will be quality jobs for future workers who have gone through tertiary education?
