

Question for written answer E-001143/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: Cyberstalking

The European Games Developer Federation (EGDF) has issued a statement condemning hatred and discrimination in the video game industry. This statement comes in the wake of the recent increase in death threats against female figures in the gaming industry.

The EGDF has thus raised the issue of cyberstalking. This problem also affects the protection of children online.

Will the Commission consider taking action against this form of cyberstalking?