Subject: Accessibility in information and communications technologies and systems

In 2010 the European Disability Strategy 2010-2020 was adopted with the aim of eliminating barriers for people with disabilities. One of the eight main areas for action identified is that of accessibility in information and communications technologies and systems.

1. What action is the Commission taking to ensure that public websites comply fully with web accessibility standards?
2. What action is the Commission taking to foster an EU-wide market for assistive technology?
