Subject: Consumer Programme 2014-2020

In 2014 the Commission introduced the Consumer Programme 2014-2020, with a budget of EUR 188.8 million to provide support for EU consumer policy. Building on the previous programme for the 2007-2013 period, the new consumer programme is aimed at increasing confidence by reinforcing consumer safety, enhancing knowledge, stepping up enforcement, securing redress and aligning consumer rights and policies to changes in society and in the economy, thus helping the citizens to fully enjoy their rights as consumers and supporting growth, innovation and the achievement of the objectives of the Europe 2020 strategy.

What actions has the Commission taken to date in terms of execution of the programme and the accomplishment of its goals?
