

Question for written answer E-001836/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Ivan Jakovčić (ALDE)

Subject: Education and circular economy

Circular economy is today the approach, but also the concept of development on which many European countries place high hopes. Unfortunately, the awareness of circular economy is still far below the required level.

I ask the Commission if it intends, in cooperation with Member States, to propose a method of education in educational institutions about the positive impact of circular economy on Europe's economy?