Subject: Renewed EU approach towards Bosnia and Herzegovina

At its meeting of 15 December 2014 the EU Council for Foreign Affairs agreed on a renewed approach towards Bosnia and Herzegovina. In its Decision, the Council invited the High Representative Mogherini and the Commissioner Hahn to work for an early agreement to written commitments by the leadership of Bosnia and Herzegovina to undertake reforms. These written commitments also include consultations with the European Union on the initial content of the reforms. The Council anticipates that the commitments will be accepted by the presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina, signed by the political leaders of Bosnia and Herzegovina and confirmed by the Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Since we are talking about an urgent task, and in Bosnia and Herzegovina the formation of the government is nearly completed, I am asking the following question:

At what stage is the process of agreeing to written commitments by Bosnia and Herzegovina under the Decision of the EU Council for Foreign Affairs of 15 December 2014?
