Subject: Monitoring the ethnic origin of staff in the Council

Following Written Questions E-007864/2014 and E-008462/2014, does the Council believe that it would be a good idea for its General Secretariat to begin monitoring the ethnic origin of its staff, in order to be able to give an insight into the levels of diversity and ethnicity that make up the Council?

Does the Council think that the makeup of its staff should reflect the diversity of the citizens of the EU?
