

Question for written answer E-002776/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Ivan Jakovčić (ALDE)

Subject: Cybercrime

Although this problem is rarely discussed in public, the fact is that entrepreneurs in Croatia are increasingly victims of cybercrime. According to estimates, it appears that in 2015 social networks, as well as the banking and health sectors, will be increasingly under attack together with businesses.

What is the Commission doing when it comes to preventing cybercrime in Europe and educating our businessmen and citizens about the subject?