Subject: Reform of copyright

On a number of occasions, the Commission President, the Vice-President for the Digital Single Market and the Commissioner for the Digital Economy and Society have all stated that the new Commission's priorities include submitting a package of legislation on copyright to the European Parliament.

Can the Commission set out the broad lines of this reform?

What specific measures is the Commission anticipating with regard to portability and cross-border access to products and services?

What specific steps will the Commission take to guarantee fair remuneration for holders of copyright and related rights in the digital environment?
