

Question for written answer E-003010/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Javier Couso Permuy (GUE/NGL)

Subject: EU relations with Angola

The first Angola-European Union Ministerial Meeting took place in October 2014, with views exchanged on a variety of matters. The statement issued afterwards stated that: 'The Parties reaffirmed their joint commitment to [the] intensified political dialogue and cooperation'.

It was also said in the statement that the parties had agreed to hold a further meeting in Luanda in the second half of 2015 to follow up agreements reached.

What is the European External Action Service's assessment of what was agreed with Angola in October?

What specific objectives are being proposed for this year's Ministerial Meeting?