to the Commission

Rule 130

Javier Couso Permuy (GUE/NGL)

Subject: Development of good-neighbourly relations by the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia

One of the objectives of the EU's Stabilisation and Association process in the Western Balkans is to develop a political dialogue between the parties.

The development of good-neighbourly relations and regional cooperation are an important part of that political dialogue.

How does the Commission view the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia's development in this regard since the implementation of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement?

Does the Commission consider that the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia is acting in line with EU policies across the region as a whole?
