

Question for written answer E-003137/2015/rev.1
to the Commission
Rule 130
Javier Couso Permuy (GUE/NGL)

Subject: Right of establishment of companies between the European Union and Montenegro

The Stabilisation and Association Agreement signed between the European Union and Montenegro provides for freedom of establishment for companies and for the economic activities of individuals.

What impact has the liberalisation of the right of establishment had in each of these areas? Does the Commission not agree that this legislation prevents the development of Montenegrin business initiatives, to the detriment of business in the European Union?