

Question for written answer E-003617/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță (S&D)

Subject: Evictions in Tanzania

According to Minority Rights Group International, the Government of Tanzania is planning to compensate wrongful claimants of Uvinje lands from 17 February 2015, in order to justify the eviction of the rightful owners. At stake is the future of a small community of 21 households and a total population of 130 people.

Has the Commission held any talks with Government of Tanzania on how to carry out proper and transparent procedures with regard to the evictions of the coastal fishing community of Uvinje in Tanzania by the Tanzania National Parks Authority (TANAPA)?