

Question for written answer E-003723/2015
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)

Rule 130

Javier Couso Permuy (GUE/NGL) and Marina Albiol Guzmán (GUE/NGL)

Subject: VP/HR - Protection of human rights in Colombia

In her answer to Written Question E-008635/2014, the High Representative stated that ‘the EU Delegation to Colombia published tweets in support of the defenders, stressing the importance of their work.’

Bearing in mind the extremely serious situation in which human rights defenders find themselves in Colombia and the threats against them, does the High Representative not consider that the publication of tweets by the EU Delegation to Colombia is clearly insufficient? Would she accept that this Delegation’s actions might be described as superficial?
