

Question for written answer E-003797/2015
to the Council
Rule 130
José Blanco López (S&D)

Subject: Regulation (EU) No 1303/2013, and Article 23 thereof, on measures linking the effectiveness of the European Structural and Investment Funds to sound economic governance Article 23 of Regulation (EU) No 1303/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 December 2013 laying down common provisions on the European Regional Development Fund, the European Social Fund, the Cohesion Fund, the European Agricultural Fund for Rural Development and the European Maritime and Fisheries Fund contains measures linking the effectiveness of these European Structural and Investment Funds (ESIF) to sound economic governance, in other words, macro-economic conditionality or 'macro-conditionality'.

I have been appointed the Parliament's rapporteur for the Communication from the Commission on the guidelines for the application of the measures linking the effectiveness of the ESIF funds to sound economic governance, in terms of Article 23 of Regulation (EU) No 1303/2013. In the light of the forthcoming debates in the European Parliament and with a view to drawing up the corresponding report, I should like to ask the Council the following:

Have any specific studies or analyses been carried out on the relationship between macro-economic policies and the cohesion policy?

Could it provide specific data on the percentage of execution of the specific recommendations by country and of the Council's recommendations?

The 2013 strategic report contains data on reprogramming. Could the Council provide more up-to-date figures relating to reprogramming in general during the preceding programming period?