

Question for written answer E-003819/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Ivan Jakovčić (ALDE)

Subject: Access to schools for disabled persons

A study conducted in France showed that 25 % of primary schools built after 2008 do not have adequate architectural solutions to ensure the free movement of disabled persons. A similar or even worse situation exists in many other Member States as well.

What is the Commission doing to help solve this problem in schools as soon as possible?