

Question for written answer E-003820/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Ivan Jakovčić (ALDE)

Subject: The electrification of Africa

In France, an initiative has been launched for the electrification of Africa which involves many partners from the public and private sectors. The initiators of this idea believe that this is an absolute priority for the next 10 years.

As we have witnessed huge catastrophic events in Africa that also result in many problems in the Member States, does the Commission intend to support this French initiative and participate in it?