Rule 130

Lola Sánchez Caldentey (GUE/NGL)

Subject: TTIP and international cooperation and development policy

The opinion issued by the EP Development Committee (DEVE) on the parliamentary report on the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) recognises the potential negative effects of the TTIP in developing countries and urges the Commission to carry out an independent external study on those potential effects.

Will the Commission carry out this independent external study and follow its recommendations?
