Subject: Measures in favour of the social inclusion of people in need in the EU

Over the past few years the Fund for European Aid to the Most Deprived has fulfilled an important social function, helping families most in need across the EU to receive food, clothing, educational materials and other essential items.

This programme is also designed to support initiatives fomenting the social inclusion of the poorest people in the EU.

What measures have been funded in favour of the social inclusion of people most in need since the start of the new programme in 2014?

What budget has the Commission allocated to this section of the Fund?
