

Question for written answer E-003963/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Gabriel Mato (PPE) and Carlos Iturgaiz (PPE)

Subject: Iguala case

The disappearance of 43 students in Iguala, Mexico is such a serious matter that it requires the European Union to deploy all its influence in order that the case be resolved as soon as possible, so that the families affected and the country as a whole can find out definitively what happened and the culprits can be brought to justice.

What steps has the Commission taken to call on the Mexican authorities to act with the maximum diligence in this affair?

What action will the EU take to assist Mexico in fighting organised crime?
