

Question for written answer E-004296/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță (S&D)

Subject: Discrimination of minorities in Iraq

Iraqi minorities have long been discriminated against in Iraq. Violence against them has increased dramatically in the territories controlled by IS/Daesh. More than 2 million people have been displaced as a consequence of questioning by IS/Daesh of the very existence of several of these minorities.

What is the European Union's response to support national reconciliation in Iraq? Is the Commission planning to increase humanitarian assistance?