

Question for written answer E-004301/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță (S&D)

Subject: Universal primary education

Education contributes directly to the reduction of poverty. It has been estimated that the global poverty level could drop by 12 % if all children in low-income countries could read.

The UN included achieving universal primary education in its Millennium Development Goals. What is the EU doing to promote universal primary education?