

Question for written answer E-004665/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Enrico Gasbarra (S&D)

Subject: Hyperlinking

As established in the recent order of the Court of Justice of 21 October 2014 on Case C-348/13, the ability to freely create links between one resource and another is one of the cornerstones of the functioning of the Internet.

In light of this and other case law on this issue, can the Commission provide clarification on the status of content which can be accessed by a hyperlink?
