

Question for written answer E-004731/2015/rev.1
to the Commission

Rule 130

Morten Messerschmidt (ECR)

Subject: Treaties acceded to by Denmark

In his book 'The Lisbon Treaty - A Legal and Political Analysis', pp. 20-21, the Council's then Legal Adviser, Jean-Claude Piris, stated that there were 17 treaties in force in 2004, running to 2 800 pages in total.

How many treaties are there today, including all basic treaties in force and all applicable accession treaties, protocols and other acts equivalent to treaties, and what is the total page count?