

Question for written answer E-004742/2015
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 130
Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță (S&D)

Subject: VP/HR - Repressive legislation in Kenya

The Government of Kenya has enacted its Security Laws (Amendment) Bill, a piece of repressive security legislation that could lead to widespread restrictions on freedom of expression and movement.

A ruling by the High Court of Kenya declared some clauses of the Security Laws (Amendment) Act 2014 unconstitutional.

Has the Vice-President/High Representative taken a position on the Government of Kenya's enactment of the Security Laws?