

Question for written answer E-004926/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Ernest Maragall (Verts/ALE)

Subject: Investigation into State aid

On 1 October 2014 the Commission announced its intention to extend an investigation into concealed State aid provided by Gibraltar through tax deals.

1. What is the current state of the investigation? Has any action been taken against the United Kingdom in connection with this State aid?
2. Does the Commission have any information on the negative impact of these practices on the rest of the EU, specifically neighbouring Spain?