

Question for written answer E-005306/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Gabriel Mato (PPE) and Carlos Iturgaiz (PPE)

Subject: Improving conditions of temporary workers

Every year 100 000 workers arrive in the EU from third countries, basically to work in sectors such as agriculture or tourism.

The situation needs to be monitored in order for these employment relationships to be as organised as possible, so that both the temporary workers and the companies which take them on, as well as other EU workers, are sufficiently protected and no irregular situations arise.

What is the current situation in the EU in relation to these temporary workers?

What checks does the Commission carry out to ensure that all parties are protected?
