

Question for written answer E-005314/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Gabriel Mato (PPE) and Carlos Iturgaiz (PPE)

Subject: 40th anniversary of Eurofound and improved working conditions in Europe

This year marks the 40th anniversary of Eurofound, the body created in 1975 to improve the planning and development of better living and working conditions in Europe.

Since then, many of the objectives established at the birth of Eurofound are still very relevant today, and there is still a need to continue the work to improve living and working conditions in the EU, with the ultimate aim of guaranteeing that our citizens, and young people in particular, can find employment with good working conditions and that this will continue for the whole of their working life.

How does the Commission rate the current conditions in which our workers find and keep jobs?

What measures need to be taken to ensure the continuing improvement of those conditions?