

Question for written answer E-005463/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Lola Sánchez Caldentey (GUE/NGL)

Subject: Slaughter of dogs in Romania

Several animal protection associations in Romania have denounced the recent slaughter of around 300 dogs at the Breasta public shelter, Craiova, Romania. The dogs were not killed in accordance with veterinary standards but brutally (stabbing and beating to death).

Is the Commission going to analyse whether this case goes against EU standards on animal protection?

Is it going to make any recommendations to the Romanian authorities regarding this issue?