

Question for written answer E-005918/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță (S&D)

Subject: Joint action plan between Greece and Russia

The Greek Prime Minister Alexis Tsipras met President Vladimir Putin during a visit to Moscow on 8-9 April in order to sign a three-year economic agreement between Greece and Russia. What is the European Commission's position regarding the signing of this joint action plan in the field of economy, trade, research and technology, given Greece's economic situation and the support that the European Union is providing to this country?