

Question for written answer E-005924/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Doru-Claudian Frunzulică (S&D)

Subject: Alternatives to the use of hydrochlorofluorocarbons (HCFCs)

A sector-by-sector analysis shows that a climate-friendly replacement for the current and future use of hydrochlorofluorocarbons (HCFCs) is possible in most applications.

What is the European Union doing to effectively support the development and use of alternatives to HCFCs, which is fundamental for protecting both the ozone layer and the climate in developing countries?