

Question for written answer E-005925/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Doru-Claudian Frunzulić (S&D)

Subject: Extremely polluting power plants in Kosovo

In Obilic, Kosovo, two power plants burn lignite, a highly polluting fuel, and the area is one of the most contaminated in Europe. What is more, the power system is very inefficient and blackouts can last as long as eight hours.

Is the Commission going to ask the Government of Kosovo to find a solution that can solve the environmental problems in this area and put a stop to the health risks for its inhabitants?