

Question for written answer E-006269/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Beatrix von Storch (ECR)

Subject: Free trade agreements and their continued validity in the event of an exit from the EU

Would agreements that have been or will be made by the EU under international law, such as the TTIP or the EU Free Trade Agreement with Korea, continue to apply to the relations between a Member State and the other party to the agreement in the hypothetical event that the Member State leaves the EU?