

Question for written answer E-006348/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Marc Tarabella (S&D) and Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: Coherence of the European Union on the subject of asylum

Some European ministers with responsibility for asylum and migration are asking to add to the list of 'sure' countries of origin. One of the problems is coherence between the lists of the various countries. We therefore asked you if a common list would be useful. The Commission's reply (P-000010/2015) was that it had recently begun a reflection with the Member States and the European Asylum Support Office on how to compile such a list.

1. What is the content of this reflection?
2. What form does it take?
