

Question for written answer E-006381/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Ivan Jakovčić (ALDE)

Subject: Programmes for senior citizens

Europe is fortunately getting older. Elderly persons often need the care of the system and of their loved ones. Care in the home, premises where retirees can socialise and day centres as well as various programmes for acquiring new knowledge and skills help in many ways to enhance the life of the elderly.

Does the Commission have programmes to support such commendable efforts and what would be the best practices in Member States that the Commission could recommend?