Subject: VP/HR - EU action against Boko Haram a year after the abduction of the schoolgirls from Chibok

One year on from the abduction of more than a hundred young women in Nigeria by the Islamist sect Boko Haram, from a secondary school in the north of the country, the situation has not changed and we still do not know whether the girls are still alive.

In its conclusions of 9 February 2015, the Foreign Affairs Council called on the High Representative to 'take the necessary action and decisions' to resolve this crisis.

In this regard, what measures does the High Representative intend to take to help our African Union and United Nations partners in the region combat Boko Haram?
