Subject: Goods from third countries in relation to TTIP

Prompted by the negotiations on the impending EU-USA free trade agreement, its effects on third countries, less-developed countries in particular, are being discussed more intensively.

1. What goods from third countries, and less-developed countries in particular, are in direct competition with goods traded between the EU and USA?
2. What is the Commission's assessment of the crowding-out effect on these goods?
3. What measures will the Commission take to ensure that goods from third countries suffer no adverse effects?
