

Question for written answer E-006883/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Enrico Gasbarra (S&D)

Subject: Cultural heritage

Considering the great value and significant contribution in terms of innovation and sustainability embodied in projects to promote the cultural heritage;

Considering the strategic capacity of the sector in terms of job creation and development of entrepreneurial and research capability;

Considering that the ERDF projects relating to enhancement of the cultural heritage offer a successful example of multi-level governance and valid application of the principle of subsidiarity;

How does the Commission intend to aid the cultural heritage sector within the EU structural investment plan (Juncker plan) and review of the Europe 2020 strategy and to strengthen and further develop institutional funding support through public-private partnership agreements?
