Subject: VP/HR - Falun Gong persecution

Has the VP/HR called for the Chinese Government to allow the Falun Gong and other persecuted practitioners of various religions/spiritualties in China to practise their beliefs without persecution, arrest or jail?

The plight of the practitioners of the Falun Gong spiritual practice is one of dire persecution in China. Since 1990 they have been arrested, tortured and had their organs harvested, these practices continue. What measures are in place in order that the High Representative may monitor the plight of the Falun Gong?
