

Question for written answer E-007176/2015
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 130
Javier Couso Permuy (GUE/NGL) and Pablo Iglesias (GUE/NGL)

Subject: VP/HR - Preparation of the meeting between President Tusk and Petro Poroshenko

There was a summit held in Kiev on 27 April, between President Tusk and Petro Poroshenko, in which discussions took place concerning the implementation of the EU-Ukraine Association Agreement.

Did President Tusk and his team receive aid and advice from the European External Action Service to prepare for this meeting?

Was the collaboration of the High Representative requested?

How would you define the relationship between the European External Action Service and the Presidency of the European Council with regard to the situation in Ukraine?