

Question for written answer E-007177/2015
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 130
Javier Couso Permuy (GUE/NGL) and Pablo Iglesias (GUE/NGL)

Subject: VP/HR - Humanitarian aid in Donetsk

According to statements from journalists, with the exception of the humanitarian aid convoys emanating from the Russian Federation, there has been no international humanitarian aid in the east of Ukraine.

Is the High Representative aware of this situation?

Are there plans to send European Union aid to the region?

Does the High Representative feel that, in accordance with the provisions of the Geneva Conventions and their Additional Protocols, in the event of armed conflict, humanitarian aid should be provided to all parties under equal conditions and in a neutral manner?