Subject: Role of civil society in post-2015 framework process

In its 2014 communication entitled 'A decent Life for all: from vision to collective action' (COM(2014)0335), the Commission stressed the importance of a new and strengthened global partnership that should be inclusive and mobilise action at all levels by all countries and stakeholders, including civil society.

Parliament reaffirmed the significance of civil society in designing and implementing the new framework, in its resolution of 25 November 2014 on the EU and global development framework after 2015.

Does the Commission intend to hold consultations with civil society during the process of intergovernmental negotiations, and in what concrete format?
