Subject: VP/HR - Process of national reconciliation in Libya

It is vital for the international community to engage in resolving the Libyan conflict, with the aim of reaching a pact between the two opposing parties and thereby guaranteeing the country's territorial integrity and Libyan citizens' security. Likewise, it is crucial for the EU to bring about a stable government in Libya that is capable of controlling its territory and borders.

What action is the Vice-President/High Representative taking to support national reconciliation in Libya?
