Subject: VP/HR - Situation in Nepal

Following the devastating earthquake in Nepal, it is imperative that the EU offers all its support and assistance to the Nepalese authorities so as to save as many lives as possible and to help meet the basic needs of the local people. International aid will be crucially needed there for months to come.

What has the Vice-President/High Representative done to alleviate the humanitarian crisis in Nepal?

What are the Vice-President/High Representative's plans for helping Nepal recover from the earthquake in the medium and long term?
