

Question for written answer E-007395/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Doru-Claudian Frunzuliță (S&D)

Subject: Hungarian law against migration

Hungary needs laws to stop the wave of migrants from poor countries, even if such legislation is against the European Union's rules, according to Prime Minister Viktor Orbán. He added that Brussels should allow the Member States to decide on their own migration rules.

What is the Commission's view regarding this statement by Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orbán?