

Question for written answer E-007998/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: Enhancing Europe's military capacities

On 29 April, the EU's High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy gave a speech in Washington on EU-US cooperation on security and defence.

In particular, she stated: '[...] getting at least some integrated defence capacities is something we [Europeans] cannot do without'.

Could the European External Action Service specify which types of defence capacity the High Representative meant?