Subject: VP/HR - EU-Moldova relations

On 3 May 2015, some 40 000 people took part in a demonstration in Moldova's capital Chisinau to protest against the pervasive corruption in the country.

In June 2014, Moldova signed an association agreement with the EU which includes provisions on establishing a free-trade regime and on visa facilitation.

1. What progress has the EU made in its dealings with Moldova concerning the country's approach to upholding the rule of law, combating corruption and good governance?
2. What action has the Commission taken, under the European Neighbourhood Policy, to help maintain stability in this historically volatile region?
