Subject: FEAD 2014

2014 was the first year of the new Fund for European Aid to the Most Deprived to help Member States combat poverty and social exclusion.

1. Does the Commission already have final figures on the take-up of this Fund by the Member States, especially in terms of food aid?
2. As over 120 million European citizens are at risk of poverty, is the Commission planning other food aid initiatives?
