

Question for written answer E-008527/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Sorin Moisă (S&D)

Subject: Possible free trade negotiations with Australia

Is the Commission considering negotiations for a free trade agreement with Australia?

Australia is one of the very few countries in the world with which the EU has no preferential trade agreement, nor any negotiation under way to this effect.