

Question for written answer E-008541/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Jana Žitňanská (ECR)

Subject: European Social Fund - heavy administrative workload

Echoing the persistent complaints made by final beneficiaries of financial resources intended for employment services in Slovakia and financed by the European Social Fund (ESF), in which they criticise the heavy administrative workload associated with implementing and drawing on ESF resources, I would like to ask what the European Commission's plans are, or what action it has already taken, to reduce this administrative burden and cut through the excessive red tape in the uptake of ESF employment service funds.